Roger Williams University Foundation to Promote Scholarship and Teaching

Guidelines and Instructions (RevisedNovember 302023)

These Guidelines apply for both monetary and course release grants

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Foundation is to encourage and support the effotts of edand tenure track MBUs in the wide variety of different kinds of scholarly activities generally recognized in undergraduate focused universities and articulated in Scholarship Reconsiderethe subsequent expansion of Ernest Boyer's work supported by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. RWU notes that Boyer defines selvereas of scholarsp, including the scholarship of teaching, discovery, integration application (engagement) RWU equally values and encourages all these areas of scholarship.

It is theaim of the Foundation to be a resource for three general groups of finds faculty in their efforts to develop self-ustaining scholarly/creative agendas. Priority in funding and course releases shall be directed to

- a) tenuretrack, untenured faculty two evidence a need for support to continue or initiate scholarly or creative endeavors and/or to provide incentives to raise extramural funding;
- b) mid-career and senior faculty who evidence a need to retool or reinvigorate their existing scholarly engageent; and
- c) mid-career and senior faculty who evidence a need for an internal, but short infusion of resources to benefit their ogoing research or other scholarly endeavor. It is not the mission of the Foundation to be a perpetual granting agency for individual lines of research.

II. Application Timeline

For awards be expended in 2024-2025, applications must be received by the Office of Academics Affairs by 11:59pm Friday, February 162024.

Decisions will be communicated to the applicant on or about Tyri March 29

If living subjects are involved in the proposed research, this must be clearly noted in the prampobsal IACUC and/or IRB approval must be received to initiating the project.

The general criteria used by the Foundation in providing different kinds of support for scholarship shall include:

- 1. Academic merit/validity
- 2. The nature and quantity of upport required for the successful pursuit of scholarly activity
- 3. Availability of alternate or supplemental (matching) financing
- 4. Ties to the curricular and teaching activities of the University (especially research or scholarly projects involving RogeWilliams University students)
- 5. Relationship to the University's mission

Any faculty member who receives grant or course release support and who fails to produce the general required outcome of external presentation and critique will not be eligible for further Foundation support without the consent of the Chief Academic Officer.

VII. Requirementsor Recipients

Recipients of a grants or course release(s) agree:

- 1. That in accepting the grant the recipient will comply with any restrictions outlined in this document;
- 2. If applicable, Human Subjects Review BoltRB) and/or Institutional Anim@areand Use Committee (IACUC) approval will be received in advance of protigent;
- 3. That the recipient's and the University's copyright and patent rights as specified in the Agreement between the Roger Williams University Faculty Association and the University apply;
- 4. That the assistance of the Foundation will be acknowledged in any publications, performances or exhibits which results in whole or in part from research funded by the Foundation;
- 5. That a copy of any such publication, performance program, or exhibition catalog will be filed with the Foundation:
- 6. That use of faculty research awards is contingent upon continued employment at the University and requisitions for awarded funds submitted following the effective date of termination of employmentwill not be honoredand
- 7. To submit a detailed report of their activities to the Provost's Official in thirty days of the start of the semester following the completion of their grant period or course release semester, which shall be made avai

Additionally, recipients of grants agree:

- 1. That funds will be used solely for the accomplishment of the project as approved;
- 2. To work with appropriate University officials to ensure that the best purchase(s), lease(s) or rental(s) of equipment and supplies, etc. are obtained;
- 3. That equipment and supplies purchased with grant funds are ultimately the property of the University and the disposition of these, upon the completion or terminatiform research activity, is up to the University;
- 4. That upon approval of a grant, a budget for the grant as delineated in the proposal will apply
- 5. That transfers between grant categories greater than 10% of total grant monies from the Foundation will require advance approval from the Office of Academic Affairs
- 6. That funds cannot be carried over to subsequent funding years
- 7. Foundation to Promote Scholarship and Teaching (FPST) activities and spending are subject to current University processesolicies, and guidelinesand
- 8. Recipients are responsible for keeping an accurate accounting of their FPST spending and spending cannot exceed the amount of the award.

Notes on Foundation Course Releases:

No recipient of a course release may teach a course overload during the release semester (permission may be granted in exceptional cases by the Provost following consultation with the appropriate School/College dean and upon notification to the RWUFA).

An MBU who is unable to use an awarded course release in the semester authorized due to some exigent circumstance, will consult with the MBU's dean and/or Provost to arrive at mutual agreement on the semester for the carrover of the release.

Foundationcoursereleases are not to be used or presupposed spart of the University's preapproval process in support of external grants.